MANY FIREMEN DIE AT POSTS

Conflagrations in Chicago And Philadelphia

Between Twenty and Thirty Killed and Many Injured in Chicago—A Million and a Half Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed—Eleven Firemen and Four Policemen Crushed in Ruins of Philadelphia Fire Swept Building.

Chicago, Dec. 22.—Marshal James Horan and between twenty and thirty firemen were killed and forty others were injured today in a fire which caused $1,500,000 damage in Chicago's great stock yards.

A wooden canopy fell from the beef house of Morris and Company, where the fire started, carrying with it tons of red hot bricks and debris upon two companies of firemen and the chief, crushing them to death and encasing their bodies in a veritable furnace into which their comrades were unable to dig for several hours, so that practically all those who were not killed outright when the wall fell, were roasted to death before help could reach them.

Assistant Chief William Burroughs and Lieutenant Fitzgerald were with Marshal Horan under the fatal canopy when it fell and went down to their death with their chief.

Other firemen, witnesses of the disaster which resulted in the death of their chief, for a brief time deserted the other parts of the building and, rushing to the pyre, sought with their bare hands to drag apart the bricks and tried to bring the body of their chief and his companions out of the debris. Finding this a vain effort, they followed the orders of Assistant Marshal Seyferlich and redoubled their efforts to shut in the spreading area of destruction. The blaze was discovered about 4 o'clock by a watchman in the Morris beef house at Forty-second and Loomis streets. An ammonia pipe bursting started spontaneous combustion and the fire spread so quickly the watchman barely had time to turn in the alarm before the flames began bursting from the building. Marshal Horan, at his home on the West side, heard the second call for fire apparatus and dashed to the stockyards—and to his death—in his automobile.

By the time he arrived his assistants, who had reached the scene earlier had abandoned the effort to save the beefhouse and were endeavoring to head off the rush of fire toward other buildings. Flames were issuing from several structures nearby when the marshal arrived and the inferno was blistering the hands and faces of the pipemen and ladder men, who were sticking by their positions under the encouragement of their commanders, who themselves were burned and blistered by the fierce heat.

The canopy which later became the destroyer of a score of lives, seemed to offer a shelter from the threatening wave of heat that radiated for a hundred feet from the fire. Under this, the ill-fated crew fled for protection, led by Horan, Burroughs and Fitzgerald.

On top of the canopy another group of firemen with their backs to the roaring inferno, still played streams of water into the heart of the fire. Suddenly Lieutenant Joseph Mackay, leader of the brave band above, felt the wall going and shouted a warning to those below, but beneath them the cavernous maw of the canopy found its victims and the fire fighters were engulfed with a roar.

Meanwhile firemen who knew nothing of this, and augmented by constantly arriving aids, were standing in the path of the raging flames. They stood their ground as building after building, only to be driven back at last, blistered and scalded by the stream from their own hose and with lungs scarcely able to breathe fresh air.

Assistant Marshal Seyferlich, on whom now lay the command, realizing the futility of saving property then drew all the men back to a firm stand in the lee of the flames.

"We've got to let the rest of it go, men," he shouted to those who still hesitated to quit the fight at close range. "Get back here and we'll make a final stand."

"Maybe we can save this part," pleaded some of the men close in, crazed by the heat and unable to realize their danger.

"All hell couldn't stop the fire in that building, boys," was Seyferlich's answer and the men fell back.

"We've got no water here and we can do nothing effectively," he said. "The thing really is beyond our control right now. But we've got to stick out here in the path of her and head her off if it takes every man we've got in the department."

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 22.—Four policemen and eleven firemen are known to be dead, eight others are still buried in the ruins and twenty-five are suffering from injuries as the result of the collapse of the walls of the five-story leather warehouse of D. Friedlander in Bodine street early today, after the interior of the structure had been destroyed by fire.

More than thirty firemen, among them Chief Baxter were burned when the roof and upper stories fell and while a battalion of policemen were digging the firemen from the ruins the north wall fell with a crash that could be heard for half a dozen blocks, burying the policemen.

All hope was given up for those bodies still covered after 8 o'clock. At that time Chief Baxter declared his belief that those whose bodies were still in the ruins had perished.

The disaster which was the worst in the history of Philadelphia in a decade, is believed to have been an incendiary and search has already begun for a suspect.

The calamity was replete with heroism. Chief Baxter braved death to warn a number of firemen who were working on the roof that the walls were sagging and had the closest call of his career. He had to fight his way out from beneath a pile of burning timbers which fell upon him.

One of the dramatic incidents came when three firemen were buried together in the ruins, retaining consciousness and urging on the rescuers who were furiously digging to get them out. One of these men, William Glazier, of Truck Co. No. 6, had been pinned in the debris for over six hours but retained consciousness. Glazier's heroic battle with death while he was pinned across a dead comrade by a steel beam and commanded the admiration of the policemen who were working to uncover him. He was rescued after being pinned down 12 hours.

SMITH TAKEN HOME

Chicken Thief Goes With Deputy Sheriff Back to Fremont—Chickens Go Too.

Andrew Britt, alias A. J. Smith, the negro who was arrested here Wednesday for the proverbial offense of stealing chickens at Fremont, N. C., and having them shipped here, he himself afterward arriving to take them from the express office, was taken home yesterday in company with his crates of chickens and a deputy sheriff from Wayne county. It is said that Smith is one of the smoothest chicken thieves in the state, having the dexterity of a magician and the prestidigitary powers of an Oriental juggler. It is given out as a fact that the crates he shipped here were taken from one roost at one stroke, and that before breakfast and the checking by the owner of those missing, Smith and his birds were well on their way toward Greensboro.

ON SAD MISSION

Mr. J. G. Foushee and Daughters Called To Sanford on Account of Death of Mr. Frank Foushee.

Mr. J. G. Foushee, Sr., and daughters, Misses Kate and Ellie, left yesterday for Sanford, where they were called on account of the death of a son and brother, Mr. Frank Foushee.

The deceased was forty-two years of age and had been in Sanford but a short time, having gone there from Halifax county. He died at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Cunningham, after a protracted and complicated illness.

The funeral was conducted from the Baptist church at Sanford yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Mann on Program.

Dr. J. L. Mann, superintendent of the Greensboro graded schools, has been appointed to lead the discussion on the subject, "Greater Efficiency in Education," at the annual meeting of the Southern Educational Association to be held in Chattanooga, Tenn., the last week in December.

Bicycle Business Is Moved.

Mr. F. A. Dorsett has moved his bicycle shop and store and repair business to the brick building at the corner of Davis and Washington, across Davis street from the Neese building.

EXERCISES BY SUNDAYSCHOOLS

Christmas Entertainments Being Held.

Enjoyable Program At Grace M. P. Church Last Evening—Children of Friends' Church Render Appropriate Program—Entertainments At Moravian, Centenary, Christian, Spring Garden Methodist and Forest Avenue Baptist Tonight.

A large number of the Sunday schools are holding their Christmas entertainments this week. West Market Street Methodist Sunday school held the entertainment on Tuesday night, Grace M. P. and the Friends' Sunday school held theirs last evening. A number will be held tonight. The Reformed church entertainment will be on Monday night and the Christmas exercises at the First Baptist church will be on Tuesday night.

Last evening a most interesting and enjoyable entertainment was given by the Sunday school of Grace Protestant Methodist church. The children had been well trained, and every feature was good. The number which explained how Christmas is observed in different nations was perhaps the most enjoyable feature of the evening. The singing was spirited and the children acquitted themselves in a manner most creditable to both themselves and their faithful tutors and teachers.

The house was filled to overflowing and every one had a good time.

An offering was made for the orphanage at Denton. The teachers of the primary department presented their pupils with Christmas gifts, each teacher having gifts for his or her class.

At the Friends Church.

The entertainment at the Friends church, given last night, was considered the best in the history of the Sunday school. The program consisted of songs, recitations, and exercises by the primary and junior departments, and the young people showed in their work that they had prepared their selections with care. The Christmas tree was filled with all sorts of presents, and the children were given a most delightful time.

At Centenary Church.

The exercises at Centenary Methodist church will be held this evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Following a program of exercises, consisting of songs, recitations, etc., there will be a Christmas tree from which gifts will be dispensed to the members of the school. An offering will be taken for the Methodist orphanage at Winston.

At Christian Church.

The children of the Sunday school of the Christian church will have their Christmas exercises this evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. An appropriate program of songs, recitations, etc., will be rendered, following which gifts will be distributed among the children. The public cordially invited.

At Spring Garden Methodist.

There will be a Christmas tree at Spring Garden Street Methodist church this evening. Preceding the dispensing of the gifts the children will render an appropriate program. A collection will be taken for the Children's Home at Winston and all who attend are urged to come prepared to make a liberal offering to this cause. The exercises will begin at 7:30 o'clock and the public is invited.

At Forest Avenue Baptist.

The Forest Avenue Baptist church Sunday school will give the Christmas entertainment this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The children will render a program of songs, recitations, etc., following which gifts will be distributed to the members of the school. The public cordially invited.

At Moravian Church.

The Moravian Sunday school will give their annual Christmas Concert this evening at the church on East Lee street. A very interesting program will be presented in accord with the Christmas season. The church has been extensively decorated for the occasion. Bishop Edward Rondthaler, of Salem, is on the program for an address. The public is invited to attend this concert which promises to be interesting and helpful.

FIVE PRISONERS ARE PARDONED

One of Them From Guilford County.

Bud Watkins, Colored, Given Freedom At Request of Man He Assaulted—Child Labor Committee Wants to Raise Limit to Fourteen Years—Will Agitate 60 Hours a Week—The Standard Oil Company Hearing.

Raleigh, Dec. 22.—Governor Kitchin grants five pardons, all conditioned on good behavior. Ed Russell, serving five years for larceny, from Mecklenburg county; Quintus Benfield, Catawba county, from five years for crime against nature; Bud Watkins, Guilford county, from three years for assault with deadly weapon; Beaman Bickard, Durham county, from one year for larceny and J. M. Bruton, Wake county, from six months for abandoning his family. Bruton's family is in destitute circumstances and needs his help. Bickard is an eighteen year old boy who has an uncle in Arkansas who pledges to take him there and try for making him a good citizen. Bud Watkins' pardon is at the request of the Guilford merchant who was assaulted. Ed Russell is pardoned because his punishment seems already sufficient. Benfield's pardon is in line with a promise made by the judge if he had a good prison record.

Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham announces the appointment of T. Frank Parker, of Wayne county, as assistant director of Farmer's Institute work with special attention to be given to the supervision of the Boy's Corn Club division. He is the son of Capt. T. B. Parker, director of the division.

Governor Kitchin announces that he has nominated to the United States War Department Major E. B. Glenn, of Asheville, of the Medical Corps of the North Carolina National Guard, for the six weeks field service school that will begin in April at Fort Leavenworth, Kans. The state is entitled to other representatives in the event there are others of the medical corps who can go.

The North Carolina Child Labor committee proposes to press upon the approaching legislature changes in the state child labor law that will raise the age limit for working in factories to 14 years; reduce hours of labor from 66 to 60 per week; limit days work to 10 hours; prohibit all children under 16 years old from working at night; provide for factory inspection under the supervision of the state department of labor.

The hearing in the Standard Oil Co. prosecution for violation of the North Carolina Anti-Trust law that has been on the boards here for nearly two weeks in the police court with City Attorney Walter Clark, Jr., and Attorney General T. W. Bickett conducting the prosecution for the state, stands in suspense now until Wednesday of next week when the contending counsel will thrash out the contentions in law and the force of the evidence before Police Justice Stronach. The counsel for the Standard Co. has offered no witnesses and will contend in their argument that the state has not made out a case. The charges are that the Standard is selling oil abnormally cheap on the Raleigh market and is selling the highest grades of oil under the lower grade brands with a view to still further handicap its competitors. The Standard Oil counsel are claiming that they have in the cross examination of the witnesses offered by the prosecution, refuted the charges made in that the claim to have accounted for all the differences in the price of oil in neighboring towns as compared with Raleigh through peculiar freight and delivery conditions in the respective localities. There is remarkably little interest in the case here. A remarkable thing about the outcome of the hearings is that the Standard people are claiming that they have proven by the witnesses offered by the state that the prices of oil are still considerably too high in Raleigh as compared with Richmond, Norfolk, Baltimore and other points, and that, too, in a suit in which they are being prosecuted for selling oil too cheap to the people of Raleigh.

State Commissioner of Insurance J. R. Young gives notice of a meeting of the Independent Order of True Reformers, of North Carolina, to be held here in Raleigh December 23, each of the lodges of the order in this state being expected to send delegates. The purpose is to confer with the commissioner and among themselves as to what course is the best for them to pursue.

TO DISCUSS NEW COUNTY.

Committees Recently Appointed Will Hold Meeting This Morning.

The committees, recently appointed to investigate the movement for a new county and decide whether to oppose or encourage the movement or remain neutral, will meet in the court house this morning at 10 o'clock. The members of the committee are the county commissioners, Aldermen King and Glascock and Messrs. E. J. Justice, C. D. Benbow, L. J. Brandt, C. C. McLean, Dr. J. T. J. Battle from the Chamber of Commerce.

The committee will discuss the proposition thoroughly and decide whether or not a mass meeting should be called to determine on the action to be taken by those outside the proposed county. If it is decided to call a mass meeting the members of the committee will endeavor to secure all information obtainable regarding the movement in order that the people may be fully informed before taking any action whatever.

An Enjoyable Occasion.

Last evening at the home of her parents on Chapman street Miss Flossie Westmoreland entertained most delightfully a number of her friends. Those present participated in a regular Christmas entertainment, consisting of appropriate songs, recitations and dialogues. There was also a Christmas tree laden with gifts for each one present.

New Pews Installed.

The handsome pews of Spring Garden Street Methodist church were installed yesterday and will be used for the first time at the Christmas entertainment tonight. The heating apparatus has been overhauled during the past few days, making it possible to comfortably heat the church without trouble.

Martin—Permar.

Mr. Robert E. Martin and Miss Nellie Permar were married last evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Shuford Peeler, 300 West Lee street. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of friends of the couple.

"Talk is cheap," quoted the Wise Guy. "Not always," replied the Simple Mug. "Sometimes it costs a man his reputation."

SCHOOLS CLOSE FOR HOLIDAYS

Will Reopen on Tuesday, January 3.

Interesting Exercises by the Literary Societies of the High School Yesterday Afternoon—The Normal Closed At Noon and Many Students Left During Afternoon—All Schools in County Will Close Today.

The city schools closed yesterday for the Christmas holidays which extend to Jan. 3. Most of the grades celebrated the occasion with appropriate exercises. Especially interesting, however, was the joint program of the Literary and Debating societies of the Senior and Intermediate classes. The girls' literary societies, McNeil and Ionian, had a joint program, while the fifth section of the Philomelan and Diaphesian Debating societies united for a literary program to celebrate North Carolina day.

The programs were very interesting. They were selected from the North Carolina day pamphlet. President Forney, Phi., resided over the boys' meeting. The following are the speakers and their themes which aroused much enthusiasm and applause:

Raymond Staley, Di., "Introduction to North Carolina."

Will Coffin, Di., "Toast to Carolina."

Chas. Blake, Phi., "Carolina."

Ray Bond, Phi., "King's Mountain."

Donb Kerr, Di., "First North Carolina Poet—John Charles McNeil."

Robert Harris, Di., "Indian Names."

Ivan Clendenin, Phi., "Carolina."

Forest Murray, Phi., "Victory of Moore's Creek."

Fred Pearce, Di., "The Lost Colony."

Hymen Mendelssohn, Phi., "Carolina."

Wills Hunter, Di., "Our State Flag."

Chas. Irvin, Phi., "The Last Charge at Appomattox."

The Normal closed at noon and a large number of the students left for their homes yesterday afternoon and last night. Several hundred left on No. 23, two extra coaches being added to provide accommodation. The southbound trains were also well filled. Extra sleepers were attached to No. 112 last night also.

A number of the country schools closed yesterday and the remainder will close today. At each school there will be special exercises, the program being as prepared by the State superintendent and dealing with North Carolina poets and poetry. The schools this fall have been well attended, the interest in education in rural districts being more intense than ever before. The rural schools will begin the spring term on Tuesday, January 3.

Jamestown High School closed Wednesday, as did Guilford College also.

Closed Successful Year.

There are few ministers who made such a record during the past year as Rev. S. B. Klapp. He had the good fortune to fill every appointment during the year and did not suffer from sickness a single day. Incidentally he states it was the hardest year's work he ever attempted. He preached 200 sermons, conducted 14 revivals and added 200 to the membership of the several churches he visited. In addition to this he was largely instrumental in the securing of funds for the erection of two new churches during the year, besides doing considerable home mission work of a different nature. He was recently re-elected as president of the North Carolina and Virginia Christian Missionary Association.

Said Charges Were Excessive.

Yesterday morning in Justice Collins' court judgment was awarded Messrs. T. H. Andrews and J. M. Rosenblatt, plaintiffs, who conduct a garage here, in an action against Dr. H. P. Bowman, who complained that the amount charged, $18.75, was excessive for certain repairs on his automobile. The rate per hour for the services of Andrews and Rosenblatt was 70 cents, and witnesses were introduced to prove that the rate was too high. It was also claimed that more time was charged for than was employed in the work of repairing the car. Appeal was taken to the Superior court.

The skating rink will open in Neese's Hall Friday night. 2t

"MAMA I AM BURNED TO A CRISP; PLEASE PUT ME IN MY BED"

Little Child While Popping Corn For Christmas Tree Sustains Burns That Cause Her Death.

Atlanta Journal. In the act of popping corn Monday afternoon with which to decorate a Christmas tree, Mary Neely, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Neely, of College Park, was so terribly burned that she died Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock.

She and her twin sister, Nina, were two of the prettiest and most popular children in College Park. They were so alike that it was impossible for anyone but their immediate family to distinguish one from the other. They were inseparable. So with their two sisters the twins went to see the children of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Eason, where the strings of popcorn were to be made.

They were on a committee to assist in decorating a Christmas tree, which was to have been held for the public school children of College Park Thursday night. The only grown person in the house was Mr. Eason's sister, who is 60 years old. Some of the children were on the floor, stringing the white, crisp corn as a popper full would be dumped out.

It was Mary's time to pop. She had the corn about ready to take off, when it caught fire. She jerked the popper off the coals, and in some way the flames set fire to her sleeve.

Mr. Neely had often cautioned his children of the danger of fire, and they were instructed, in case such an accident should happen, to jump in bed and smother the flames. And with rare presence of mind, when Mary found her clothes on fire, she jumped in a bed, and attempted to save herself.

Then followed a general panic. Miss Eason, so say the children who were present, called to the little girl to run on the rear porch, in order that she might throw a bucket of water on her burning clothes. The child did this, but had to stand while a bucket was being drawn from a nearby well. By the time the water had been drawn up every particle of clothing had been burned from her body.

A wrapper was put around the little girl, and with her weeping sisters she walked unassisted to her home two blocks away. When she met her mother at the door, she said, "Mama, I'm burned to a crisp; please put me to bed."

Two doctors and a trained nurse were with the little child until death brought relief. The accident happened at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and she lingered until 3 o'clock Tuesday morning. The child was conscious up until 9 o'clock in the night, when she took a stimulant, and told her mother she had drank every drop of it. When the doctors first reached the little one, the body was as cold as death. The heat of the fire had driven all the blood from the body into the heart.

You Must Read This if You Want the Benefit.

J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., suffered with a severe case of lumbago. "The pains were so intense I was forced to hypodermic injections for relief. These attacks started with a pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy lumbago." Howard Gardner.

Had No Promise of Chief Justiceship and Approves White.

Wash. Cor. N. Y. Times. There has been much gossip in political circles in Washington during the past week following the elevation of Associate Justice White to the Chief Justiceship of the Supreme Court of the United States. This gossip has centered to a great extent in the supposition that the failure of President Taft to promote Justice Hughes would leave the latter in a position where he would be available for the Republican Presidential nomination in 1912.

Those in the confidence of Justice Hughes know that he is distressed by this talk, particularly so by the inference in some quarters that he is nursing a grievance because he was not promoted to the Chief Justiceship.

Justice Hughes has steadfastly refused, since his elevation to the Supreme bench, to talk for publication; nevertheless, it can be said with unqualified positiveness and on the best possible authority, that he harbors no such grievance; that he never had a promise of the Chief Justiceship; that he recognizes the fitness and propriety of the promotion of Justice White; that he is not and does not intend ever to be a candidate for the President, and particularly that he is happy in his work and desires to be left alone to do it to the best of his ability.

REFRIGERATOR CARS.

Evolution of the Idea of "an Icebox on Wheels."

The refrigerator car was never invented, but just "fixed up." It was the idea of a New-England railway man who needed some such thing as far back as 1851.

In June of that year the first refrigerator car was made. It was a trip from Ogdensburg, N. Y., to Boston. The car owed its origin principally to the fact that the farmers near Ogdensburg, who made a great deal of butter, were unable to ship it except in cold weather.

A railroad man named Wilder, at that time in charge of the through freight, thought it would be a good idea to rig up "an icebox on wheels," and he told this to the president of the road, who gave orders that the master mechanic should plan several of them.

At this time farmers were receiving only 12 cents a pound for their butter. The ice car was loaded with eight tons of it, sent through and allowed to stand in Boston till the product was sold. It brought 17 cents a pound after paying all expenses and commissions, and the plan was voted a success. In a short time the road had a regular service on, using a number of cars, and the idea spread rapidly.

Wilder did not patent his idea, but allowed it to be used by whoever so desired.—St. Louis Republic.

ODD VOLUMES.

They Are Members of a Unique Dining Club in London.

One of the most unique dining clubs in London is that known as the Sette of Odd Volumes, which was founded in 1878 and meets once a month from October to June. It consists of twenty-one volumes, or members, that being the number of the volumes of the Variorum Shakespeare published in 1821. There are also twenty-one supplementary members, who succeed to full membership as vacancies occur. The twenty-one rules of the club include the following:

Any Odd Volume losing his temper and failing to recover it shall be fined by the president the sum of 5 shillings. Discussions about anthropology, religion and politics shall be put down by the president.

Any Odd Volume giving to another Odd Volume unasked advice shall be fined by the president.

No Odd Volume shall talk unasked on any subject he understands.

No Odd Volume's speech shall last longer than three minutes. If, however, the inspired Odd Volume has any more to say he may proceed until his voice is drowned in the general applause.

Volumes have to address each other as "Your Oddship."—Argonaut.

The Major's Tip.

When Major Banks was the best known figure around the race tracks of Cincinnati and the middle west he was extremely generous in tipping off his friends to "sure winners." One man who enjoyed his confidence and played the horses according to the major's advice lost all his ready money and finally succeeded in reducing himself to the point where he had to sell out his grocery business.

One afternoon, following the placing of his last ten dollar note as the major advised, he caught Banks by the arm and said tragically:

"Major, you've made me lose my last cent. I'm a pauper, and my wife and family are practically starving. I am now about to go down to the river and drown myself. It's all over for me."

"All right," answered Banks, "but in the event you change your mind meet me here at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. I think I'll have something good for you."—Exchange.

If Stokesdale is to be a county seat and High Point a county seat, Gibsonville will also begin to cherish hopes. But maybe the Stokesdale proposition was intended merely to disgust the people with the whole subject of new counties and thus scotch the High Point movement.

The North Carolina Children's Aid Society reaches a class of indigent children for the reaching of which there is no other specific agency. Those who, in this time when giving is the duty of all who are able, desire to give for the purpose of abating human suffering and human sorrow should remember the Children's Home Society. This society is providing for an average of one distressful case a day of homeless children that the regular orphanages will not receive.

The latest good roads circular of the North Carolina Geological and Economic Survey is largely devoted to suggested legislation creating a State Highway Department. The State has many calls for funds, but it seems that it cannot longer, in justice to itself, do without a highway department. Such a department would be in the nature of an investment and the State, as a business enterprise, must be prepared to make investments when those investments promise rich returns. To meet the growing public necessities the State must grow in population and wealth and it has been demonstrated beyond any doubt that good roads are powerful agents for the increase of both. They bring new settlers because they improve the conditions of life. New people mean more wealth and good roads likewise produce additional wealth by immensely enhancing, for the people already here, the facilities for making money. A department of highways is an essential and indispensable first step in the direction of a complete discharge of all the State's obligations to its people.

The Charlotte Observer and Chronicle have both taken a flyer at the recently developed question in Guilford county affecting permanent road improvement in the territory of the proposed new Piedmont county and have both fallen into error as to the facts. The Chronicle says that the County Commissioners "quite properly refused to consider the request" of the committee from the Chamber of Commerce to do no more permanent road improvement in the territory of the proposed new county pending a decision as to whether or not there is to be a new county. On the contrary the commissioners took the matter under advisement and appointed a committee of their number to look further into the merits of the suggestion. The Observer regret delay of "the improvement of the Greensboro-High Point route." The Observer plainly is not aware of the fact that the road in question has been macadamized and is already an improved road, in the usual acceptance of the term, the proposed asphalt being for the purpose of permanently overcoming the deterioration which always follows several years' use of macadam roads.

There is a disposition, somewhat inexplicable, too, to make a mountain out of a molehill in connection with the suggestion of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce that permanent road improvement be held up temporarily in that part of Guilford which may be lost to the county as the result of the formation of a new county. The public spirited gentlemen who took the initiative in the matter were doing what they conceived to be a service to the county and were thus interesting themselves in a matter which everybody also seemed disposed to let go by default. When we see somebody energetically working for the interests of the taxpayers we feel like applauding and that should be the general sentiment, we believe. Should the suggestion of the Directors of the Chamber of Commerce be accepted, the good roads movement as a whole will be affected to a very slight degree and yet there is an effort to make it appear that if there is a cessation in the particular work referred to—the asphalt of a macadamized road in the territory of the new county as proposed—the whole march of progress in this entire section will be hopelessly checked. But of course it won't. The matter is a mere detail, comparatively speaking, and the great hubbalooboo that has been set up over it is, as we have said, quite inexplicable. That it should engender bad feeling, as was predicted in some quarters, is preposterous. We expect to see a perfectly amicable and satisfactory solution of the matter at the joint meeting this morning of the County Commissioners, the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce and a committee from the Board of Aldermen.

Return of Sherlock Holmes.
Once again Conan Doyle has revived the ever popular Mr. Sherlock Holmes and in the January Strand the author begins another "Reminiscence" under the title of "The Adventure of the Devil's Foot." It is, according to no less an authority than the famous detective himself, "the strangest case" he ever handled and is certainly quite as fascinating and mysterious as any of the many thrilling adventures which have gone before. By the adept manner in which he handles this "case" Mr. Holmes will doubtless gain innumerable fresh admirers.

Marriage Licenses.
Seven couples secured license to marry from the office of the register of deeds yesterday. Eighty licenses have been issued during the month and it is believed that the record established last year will be broken. The office will be closed Monday and Deputy Roy Jones will make a specialty of issuing licenses on Saturday. He is counting on issuing at least ten today and fifteen tomorrow.

Santa Claus Rides a Mule.
Manager Crawford, of the Peebles Shoe Company, has contrived one of the most unique of the numerous Santa Clauses of the holiday season. The Santa Claus of this store, as seen in one of the display windows, is riding a mule the legs of which are made of rubber boots, the tail of a feather duster and the ears of a pair of inner soles. Santa Claus, apart from his mount, is of conventional style and attire.

Presented With Handsome Watch.
Mr. Samuel Watkins, superintendent of the cigar factory, Seidenberg & Co., wore a happy smile yesterday, having been presented with a handsome gold watch on Wednesday by the employees of the company. The factory will close for the holidays this afternoon in order to allow the employees an opportunity to do their Christmas shopping before the final rush on Christmas Eve.

Quiet Home Wedding.
Last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother on South Cedar street Miss Sarah J. Hodgins and Mr. Albion B. Hinshaw were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Shuford Peeler in the presence of a number of friends of the contracting parties. The newly wedded couple left last night on a trip to Savannah. After Jan. 1 they will reside in Richmond, Va.

THE RECORD BROKEN.
December Quietest Month in History of Municipal Court.
The officials connected with the Municipal Court are congratulating themselves on the unusually good order that has prevailed during the portion of December that has passed. There have been fewer cases in court in the past 22 days than at any time of like period since the court was established two years ago. There was no court yesterday and there is little prospect for any today.

Determined To Marry.
Mr. Charlie Mayes and Miss Ida Aiken, both of Proximity, applied for license to marry yesterday, but were refused, the prospective groom being 20 and the prospective bride being only 16. They were determined to marry, however, and at once boarded a train for South Carolina, in which state a license is not necessary. The young lady's mother learned of their intended destination and an effort was made to intercept them at Charlotte, but they outwitted the officers appointed to catch them. Nothing had been heard from them last night and it is supposed that they reached the Palmetto state and were united in marriage.

More Telephone Connections in the Country.
A farmers' telephone line has lately been placed in commission connecting with the Greensboro exchange a number of substantial farmers living about a mile from town on the Freeman's Mill road. The number of the line is 6700. The subscribers are Messrs. C. W. Tenney, R. W. Reynolds, William Williams, A. J. Sherrill, and Vestal.

Death in Country.
Mrs. Mary Sapp died yesterday morning at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. David Oakley, in the Deep River section, at the advanced age of 91 years. The funeral will be held from Muir's Chapel this afternoon, the interment to follow in the church graveyard.

Easy Way to Get A Pair of Shoes

Coble & Mebane agree to give a pair of their shoes free to the man or woman who will write them the best letter of criticism on their very attractive advertisements which are appearing every Friday in this paper. Coble & Mebane are large advertisers, and they really want to get the benefit of your judgement as to what style of advertising is the most effective, and for this reason are offering this pair of shoes as a premium for the best written letter in regard to their advertising campaign.

You are to select one of their advertisements (the one you think is the best) and write a letter stating why you think this particular advertisement is the most effective. All of the letters received will be submitted to a competent committee, who will decide as to which is the best letter, and the name of the winner in this contest will be found in this paper on December 24th, and the shoes will be delivered on Christmas Day. All letters must be addressed to Coble & Mebane and must be mailed on or before the 20th of December.

Look for the large ad. every Friday. This morning it is found on page 7. Cut it out and keep it so that you can compare it with subsequent ads. Fri. 11.

BANKRUPTCY CASES.

Two Cotton Mills Placed In Hands of Receivers by Judge Boyd Yesterday.

In United States Bankruptcy court yesterday petitions were received from creditors asking that the Randleman Manufacturing Company and the Naomi Falls Manufacturing Company be declared bankrupts. F. H. Fries, of Winston, and T. A. Hunter, of this city, were appointed receivers and instructed to take over the property and operate it temporarily, being required to give bond in the sum of $30,000 each. The defendant companies are ordered to appear before Judge Boyd on Dec. 31 to show cause why this order should not be made permanent.

The petitioning creditors are the Wachovia Loan & Trust Co., of Winston, the Greensboro Loan & Trust Co., and the Hunter Manufacturing & Commission Company, of this city. The petition shows that the Randleman Manufacturing Company is indebted, including a bonded debt of $120,000, in the sum of $450,000. The indebtedness of the Naomi Company is about $300,000.

The receivers will take charge and continue to operate the mills until arrangements are made to tide over the financial embarrassment, or until some disposition is made through the court.

FOUND THEIR PASTOR

Asheboro Street Baptist Church Gives Pastor Staley Time of His Life.

Yesterday afternoon, as a token of loyalty and that spirit of Christian fellowship and love which, of course, should characterize every body of Christians, of whatever name, the members of Asheboro Street Baptist church surprised their pastor, Rev. W. P. Staley, by a good, big, generous, old-fashioned Christmas "pounding." For more than two hours there was an almost steady stream of callers bearing boxes, sacks, packages, and receptacles, generally, containing all sorts of good things necessary for bodily sustenance, comfort, and temporal enjoyment.

When the day closed that part of the house not taken up with commodities incident to the "pounding" was filled to overflowing with visitors—"pounders," and others who stopped in to learn what it was all about. Mr. E. J. Jarvis, after pushing aside a number of articles, in order to gain standing room, addressed the pastor on behalf of those present, in the spirit of Christmas and the Man Christ, who taught us to love on another. The pastor was asked to accept the gifts as a token of love of his members. Mr. Staley responded in a manner that showed plainly that he was overwhelmed with a feeling too deep for oratory. There had been no hint of the "pounding" and he had not had time to prepare himself for such an outpour of kindness. After a moment or two, however, he got his bearings and told those present just how he felt about it all. His members feel that their pastor's family is the happiest in Greensboro, and they all are impressed anew with the fact that when one wants happiness, the surest way is to dispense a little to someone else.

HOG WAS BUTCHER'S BANK

Porker Who Ate His $120 Killed to Withdraw Lost Cash.

York, Pa., Dec. 22.—After a vain search for a wallet containing $120 which he had been carrying in his hip pocket, Frank Hoover, a butcher of Belavista, a village near New Market, decided as a forlorn hope to slaughter a hog about which he had been working before missing the money.

Inside the stomach of the animal he discovered his roll of bills, chewed into a mass with the leather of the wallet. The numbers on several of the notes are distinguishable and Hoover hopes to have most of the money redeemed.

New High Record For Divorce.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 22.—Thirty-three divorces granted in three hours set a new record in the Superior court. In view of the fact that not less than two witnesses were heard in each case, the average time of five minutes and 27 seconds is considered remarkable by local attorneys. "I do not ascribe the unusually large number of divorces to any further loosening of domestic ties, because they have been plenty loose enough all along," said Judge A. W. Frater, in whose court the cases were tried. "This condition is encouraged by our peculiarly lax divorce laws."

Glass—Moose.

Yesterday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the parsonage of Spring Garden Street Methodist church, Tate street, Rev. J. W. Long officiated at the marriage of Miss Grace Moose and Mr. George H. Glass. A number of friends and relatives of the couple were present to witness the ceremony.

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM

It Is An Internal Disease And Requires An Internal Remedy.

The cause of rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this acid must be expelled and the system so regulated that no more acid will be formed in excessive quantities. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. RUBBING with Oils and Liniments WILL NOT CURE, affords only temporary relief at best, causes you to delay the proper treatment, and allows the malady to get a firmer hold on you. Liniments may ease the pain, but they will not more cure Rheumatism than paint will change the fiber of rotten wood.

Science has at last discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called Rheumacide. Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected the most marvelous cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide gets at the joints from the inside, sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the stomach, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you well all over. Rheumacide strikes the root of the disease and removes its cause. This splendid remedy is sold by druggists and dealers generally at 50c. and $1 a bottle. In Tablet form at 25c. and 50c. a package. Write to Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md. Booklet free. Tablets sent by mail.

For sale by Howard Gardner, Drug.

IT IS FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 50c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

DR. HUTCHINSON MAKES APPEAL

Famous Writer and Lecturer Says Red Cross Seals Will Save Thousands of Lives.

"Peace on earth, good health to men!" is the new Christmas greeting. Or, as the revised version has it, "Peace on earth to men of good will," peace on earth to men of good health, the only real and permanent peace known.

Not all the strains of the multitude of the heavenly host singing to gether, and of the anthems that rise from Christmas Day congregations, beautiful and inspiring as they are, can bring peace to the hacking cough, or cheer to the gaunt bosom of the consumptive. The heartiest Christmas spirit, the most cordial of all Christmas greetings, are poor substitutes for sunshine, fresh air and good food. A turkey for the poor once a year, while far better than cod liver oil, is not enough. What they need is a beefsteak every day!

Our Christmas customs, admirable and beautiful as they are in theory, have too largely degenerated into a sweet antiphonal service of selfishness—"giving to those who can give to us again;" precisely as the low Nazarene, whose birth we are supposed to be celebrating, forbade us to do. Each year we sit down with a groan and a pencil to figure up: "Let's see, how many have we got to send presents to this year. What did they send us last Christmas, and how much did it cost?"

Any benevolent tyrant who would abolish the silly slavery of the present customs, and make it a misdemeanor for any person of sound mind to send a Christmas present to anyone over fifteen years of age, or in receipt of an income of more than fifty dollars a month, would be hailed as a real benefactor of humanity.

But while waiting for this Millennium, here is a chance to take the curse off our custom-made selfishness? In this wide and prosperous land of ours, at this joyous season, there are two hundred thousand homes in which the return of Christmas chiefly points mutely to the vacant chair by the hearth, emptied since last year's carols were sung; who see in the first snowflakes but a winding sheet for the new and yet ungrassed mounds in God's acre.

In those home are a third of a million innocent children, and happy, glad-faced boys and girls, bearing already in their tender bodies the seeds of the dread disease, half of them destined to an early death, or a blighted and stunted life.

Five dollars apiece a year from each of us, properly applied, would stop this harvest of death, and break this pathetic procession of child victims to the altar of the Moloch of Ignorance. Intelligence and money would have saved the lives of 100,000 of the past year's victims. A little more money would prevent the further spread of the disease, and heal ninety per cent of these smitten children.

Do you want to aid in promoting the spread of such intemperance in every city and every county of the Union, in awakening the hygienic conscience of the Nation to stamp out this plague? Then put down first and largest upon your list of expenditures for Christmas, —RED CROSS SEALS!

DR. WOODS HUTCHINSON.

Take Care!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley's Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." Howard Gardner.

The average bachelor has a single aim in life, and that is not to get married.

Ever notice that the self-made man seldom apologizes?

"Theodore Roosevelt, poor fellow—I know him well—he has no control over himself."

James J. Hill, master railroader, so commented on the former President in his discussion of muckrakers and the attitude of those antagonistic to corporations, and especially to the railroads of the country. With W. H. Dunwoody, a Minneapolis flour mill owner, and other prominent men of that city and St. Paul, Mr. Hill is in Seattle after a trip of inspection of his great railroad properties.

"Roosevelt," said Mr. Hill continued, "has always been pleased to get a big crowd together to hear them shout and hurrah. Facing one of these cheering crowds, he loses hold of himself absolutely. In fact, I do not believe Roosevelt has had continuous control of himself for a week at a time since he became a national figure, but he simply can't help himself."

Mr. Hill declined to discuss national politics, especially as to the probable conditions of 1912. He expressed himself as having no uneasiness regarding business conditions of the country, and declared that the great national resources of the Northwest precluded the possibility of hard times in this section.

A Simple Safeguard for Mothers.

Mrs. D. Gilkeson, 326 Ingles Ave., Youngstown, Ohio, gained wisdom by experience. "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat and after using only one bottle her throat and lungs were entirely free from inflammation. Since then I always keep a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. Accept no substitutes. Howard Gardner.

The Only Time.

Thomas—Dad, when is the freedom of the city given a man?

Dad—When his wife goes to the country for the summer.—Harper's Bazar.

Home protection is true wisdom. Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve ought to be in every home for its quick relief and prevention of two dangerous diseases and the more common ailments such as Colds, Catarrh, Burns and Chaps.

On a Bear Market.

"Did Mrs. Brown take her husband's failure in the right spirit?"

"Oh, yes. Just as soon as she knew he was going to fall she went and bought her entire winter outfit."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Saved From Awful Death.

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhage—all bronchial troubles, it has no equal, 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

AT CLARK'S ELBOW.

Young Crisp Picked Out to Aid New Speaker With Parliamentary Law.

Wash. Dispatch to Philadelphia Record. The men elected to the Speakership of the House, as a rule, are not noted as experts in the intricacies of parliamentary law, and generally need at their elbow when presiding an expert parliamentary clerk to guide them aright when some annoying member on the floor raises a point which would almost puzzle Omniscience to settle. Speakers Reed, Henderson and Cannon have had as their expert Asher C. Hinds, of Maine, who was elected a member of the House last month and therefore would not be available to Speaker-to-be Clark, even if he were not a Republican.

Speaker-to-be Clark, nervously wondering where he would find a successor to Hinds, now thinks he has found the parliamentary sharp, by the help, by the way, of Asher Hinds. The latter has told Clark and other Democratic members that the best-posted man of his acquaintance of the Democratic persuasion is Charles R. Crisp, of Georgia, son of the late Charles F. Crisp, who was Speaker of the House during the Democratic Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses.

Young Crisp made a study of parliamentary law while his father was in the Speaker's chair and it is probable that he will be requested to give up the municipal judgeship he now holds in Atlanta and come to Washington to stand at Speaker Clark's elbow during the next, and probably several succeeding Congresses.

Banks On Sure Thing Now.

"I'll never be without Dr. King's New Life Pills again," writes A. Schingeeck, 647 Elm St., Buffalo, N. Y. "They cured me of chronic constipation when all others failed." Unequaled for Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Headache, Chills, Malaria and Debility. 25c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Hoax—"I know a man who had a leg amputated." Joax—"What did he do with it?" Hoax—"He buried it." Joax—"Geo! It must be an uncomfortable feeling to know you have one foot in the grave."

Get the Genuine Always.

A substitute is a dangerous make shift especially in medicine. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds quickly and is in a yellow package. Accept no substitutes. Howard Gardner.

Any woman can talk for seven consecutive days, and put up a weak argument.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup, bringing dread to the household. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it at the first sign of danger. It contains no opiates. Howard Gardner.

Blobbs—"A great many young men have an entirely false idea about marriage." Slobbs—"Yes, some of them even expect to have their own way about it."

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS
PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

PAST SEASON A SUCCESSFUL ONE

High School Athletic Association Holds
Their Final Meeting and Compares Records—In Fine Financial Condition
—Resolutions of Thanks.

The High School Athletic Association held its final meeting for the fall season
Wednesday and the reports submitted were most gratifying. All things considered this was the most successful year since the association was organized.
Only two football games were lost, to Raleigh and the U. N. C. Freshmen.
The total score of all games played was 100 as against 20 by all their opponents. This in consideration of the fact that the team was composed largely of new material is a fine showing.

The scores in the seven games played are as follows:

Greensboro 23, Bingham (Mebane) 0.
Greensboro 3, Raleigh 5.
Greensboro 40, Danville 0.
Greensboro 12, Uptown Stars 0.
Greensboro 54, Reidsville 6.
Greensboro 0, U. N. C. Freshmen 9.
Greensboro 37, Fayetteville, 0.

The financial end of the association is in fine shape. When the season opened up there was a debt of $40 hanging over the organization. This has been wiped out and there is a nest egg of $10 for future work.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved: First—That we tender to the press the assurance of our hearty appreciation for the time, attention and space so kindly given us during the past season in the promotion of interest in,
and advertising our games.

Second—That we hereby express our thanks to the Public Service Company which has so kindly advertised for us and aided us by their favors to the team.

Third—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the above mentioned, and that a copy be spread on the minutes of the association.

Committee—Doubt Kerr, Willis Hunter, Willard Eutsler.

to ask a friend to do you a favor when it is impossible to secure the favor in any other way. But why ask a friend to go on your bond as surety when the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company can give better security than an individual at no extra cost for its faithful discharge of its duty as a trustee or executor or administrator. Why should you sign a bond by which your "heirs, executors, administrators and assigns are held and firmly bound" to pay for the default of others; perhaps after your death, every dollar of your estate? Tell your friend not to burden you with such a grave responsibility. Let the Greensboro Loan
